Boys & Girls Club of Atlantic City Welcomes New Board Members

Atlantic City, N.J. - The Boys & Girls Club of Atlantic City is pleased to announce the addition of Dr. Terricita E. Sass and Rita Mack to its board of directors. Dr. Sass is Executive Vice President and Chief of Staff at Stockton University. Rita Mack is an entrepreneur and community advocate.

“We are thrilled to welcome Terricita and Rita to our board,” said Dr. Charles A Wallace II, CEO of the Boys & Girls Club of Atlantic City. “Their diverse experiences and unwavering commitment to community service will undoubtedly contribute to the success of our organization and the well-being of the youth we serve.”

“We look forward to the fresh perspectives and insights that our new board members will bring to our mission of supporting Atlantic City's youth,” said Stephen Clark, Board Chair, Boys & Girls Club of Atlantic City. “We extend a warm welcome to both Terricita and Rita.”

Dr. Sass brings over 30 years of higher education experience to the board. As an Aspen Presidential Fellow and an AASCU Millennial Leadership Institute Protégé, she is well-versed in educational leadership. Her commitment to community and education aligns seamlessly with the values of the Boys & Girls Club. She holds a Ph.D. in Education from Capella University, a Master of Arts in Urban Affairs from Norfolk State University, and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Francis Marion University.

Rita Mack brings a wealth of experience as a McDonald's franchisee since 1986. Having served as Chair & CEO of the National Black McDonald's Owners Association (NBMOA), Rita has demonstrated outstanding leadership in her commitment to community involvement. A Diamond life member of the NAACP, she is a community advocate, passionately supporting organizations that promote children, education, the advancement of women, and services to the less fortunate. Her dedication to giving back through scholarships, community projects, and supporting minority youth aligns perfectly with the Boys & Girls Club's mission.

About Boys & Girls Club of Atlantic City:

The Boys & Girls Club of Atlantic City is a nonprofit organization that has been providing a safe and nurturing environment for the youth of Atlantic City for over 50 years. Our mission is to enable all young people, especially those who need us most, to reach their full potential as productive, caring, responsible citizens. We offer a wide range of programs that focus on education, leadership, health, arts, and more, helping children and teenagers build essential life skills and develop into well-rounded individuals.
